SURPRISE WEDDING

W. W. Fuqua and Miss Lucy Hamby Unite Their Destinies Tuesday Night.

VERY PRIVATE AFFAIR.

Secret Was Carefully Guarded by Both Parties From Closest Friends.

Mr. W. W. Fuqua and Miss Lucy Hamby were married Tuesday night at the home of Mr. Robert Carter, on East Seventeenth street, Rev. George H. Means officiating.

This wedding was a complete surprise to everybody, not one of the groom's friends being let into the secret, and only one of bride's friends being informed as to what was to occur, and that not until late in the afternoon. The only witnesses to the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Carter and their daughter, Miss Bessie.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Fuqua left for the home of the groom on South Walnut street.

The bride is a niece of Judge Polk Canaler, in whose home she passed many years when a young girl. She is a highly intelligent, kind-hearted and industrious and will be a fitting helpmeet for Mr. Fuqua.

The groom is one of the best known men of the city and county. He is a salesman in the dry goods establishment of Mr. T. M. Jones, where he has been for fifteen or more years. Mr. and Mrs. Fuqua's hosts of friends will join the Kentuckian in wishing for their life unalloyed of happiness.

SHERIFF'S POSSE IS IN PURSUIT

Of Negro Who Attempted Criminal Assault in Todd Co.

NEAR ELKTON TUESDAY.

Prospect is Good For Lying If He Can Be Captured.

Elkton, Ky., Jan. 29.—An unsuccessful attempt to criminally assault Mrs. Floyd McElwain, the young wife of a well-known farmer living six miles southwest of this place, was made at noon Tuesday by David Kimbrough, a big negro who has been employed on a neighboring farm. In the struggle with her assailant Mrs. McElwain's face was cut and scratched and great bruises show where the negro's fingers closed about her throat as he attempted to strangle her. She was alone at the time. The young woman fought like a tigress and the negro, evidently fearing that her screams would attract some of the hands, suddenly fled. He had not been captured at last accounts.

He is about six feet tall, light mulatto, scar on one cheek. Had on two overall suits and wore overcoat, color not known; wore high top shoes. No one knows what direction he took when he left the neighborhood. All surrounding town officials were notified by telegraph or phone to be on the look-out for the negro.

a light one, and there are no logical reasons for sales to be made any earlier this year than last.

The 800 or more types of the weed are ready for inspection and some of them are beauties. With the best arranged quarters the Association has ever had buyers are assured that they can inspect at their leisure without any disturbance whatever and the samples are now ready to be examined.

The recent cold snaps have pretty well stopped the delivery of tobacco here, though occasionally some loose crops can be seen coming into the city.

Gen. Johnson's Plan.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 27.—In an interview here today, Adjutant General Johnson says that the only way to prevent the depredations and night rider raids is for the legislature to pass a law transferring the trial of cases to distant counties and to let the Governor appoint the court officers.

He says that local influences are too strong to ever secure convictions where the raids occur.

DR. J. W. VENABLE DEAD AGED 85

Venerable Minister Succumbs To Feebleness and Injury.

HURT LAST OCTOBER.

Was Rector of Grace Episcopal Church For Twelve Years.

Rev. John W. Venable, the retired rector of Grace Episcopal church, died yesterday morning at four o'clock, after a long illness.

Last October he sustained a fall from his porch that fractured one hip and he had been in bed ever since, constantly growing weaker.

Dr. Venable was born March 31, 1823, in Washington, D. C., and came to Kentucky in 1842. He entered the ministry of the Episcopal church in 1851 and served churches in Central Kentucky for 30 years. He removed from Versailles to this city in 1883 and was rector of Grace church for 12 years, when he retired from active ministry, at that time more than 70 years old. He was married nineteen years ago to Miss Lizzie Moore, who survives him with one son, John W. Venable, Jr., aged 18. Two daughters by a former marriage also survive him, Mrs. Lizzie Mason, of California, and Mrs. Julia Wily, of Atlanta, Ga.

Dr. Venable was a life-long member of the Old Fellows and had been Grand Chaplain since 1868, nearly forty years, although he had been unable to attend for several years. He repeatedly sent in his resignation, but was always re-elected.

He resided in a pretty cottage on South Virginia street and his declining years were spent in comfort and happiness. He was a man of literary tastes and a lover of art, in fact he was a portrait painter prior to entering the ministry.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon from the church and the body will be buried in Riverside Cemetery.

Senatorial Contest.

MONDAY. The Republicans broke a quorum and no ballot was taken.

TUESDAY.

The vote in joint session was Beckham, 52; Bradley, 51; Jno. R. Allen, of Lexington, 3; McCreary, 2; Blackburn, 1; Baird, 1. Klair, of Lexington, left Beckham and voted for Allen.

WEDNESDAY.

No material change yesterday.

KILLS HIMSELF

Son of President of Cumberland T. & T. Co. Commits Suicide.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 27.—Wm. Caldwell, aged twenty-one, son of James E. Caldwell, President of the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company, committed suicide this morning at the residence of his father, near this city, by shooting himself with a revolver. Young Caldwell's mind was unbalanced.

Fell and Broke Arm.

While going out of the back door Tuesday morning Mrs. A. H. Anderson stepped on a piece of ice and fell and fractured one arm. She had a pan of boiling water in one hand, which scalded her pretty badly when she fell.

Administrator Appointed.

Nabb Wood has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late Catherine Mason. S. P. Russell is surety.

MODERN WORK WILL NOT LAST.

Newspapers and Books Printed To Day Have Short Lives.

"The men who wrote history on tablets of stone in ages gone had a difficult task to perform, and had to cultivate the habit of brevity," says a writer in a German paper, "but what they wrote was preserved. It will be different with the newspapers and books of the present time. The paper upon which they are printed will disintegrate in a few years; and the records, historical, scientific and literary, will become dust. I saw two papers last week which told the whole story. One contained an account of the death of Napoleon Bonaparte. It was printed in 1821, was in a state of perfect preservation, and looked as though it might last, with ordinary care, a hundred years. The other paper was kept because its leading article described the surrender of Sedan, which had taken place a day before. Although it had been printed nearly 50 years later, the Sedan paper had to be handled carefully to prevent its tearing in the creases. One of these papers was printed on old-fashioned paper, and the other on the modern kind. With the two specimens before me I cannot refrain from arguing once again that a few numbers of all first-class newspapers, enough for all first-class libraries, be printed on good paper for the benefit of those who will live after us."

SOME ERRORS OF THE TYPES.

Really Amusing Blunders of Which Record Has Been Kept.

An author who has a scrapbook devoted to typographical errors was showing the articles to a friend. One item concerned a dance. The word "bonnier" was misprinted, with this deplorable result: "There was no bonnier ladies present than the mayor's own daughters, and this fact was further emphasized by the perfect fit of the shepherdess costumes they wore." A country paper, after telling how a cow got in front of a train, said: "As the safest course, under the circumstances, the engineer put on full steam, dashed into the cow and literally cut it into two calves." New York society editor misprinting the word "chill," published this statement: "Mrs. Astor was unavoidably absent from the reception, being kept at home by a bad child."

One by Gen. Miles.
Gen. Miles used to tell of a surgeon at a certain post during the civil war who was chaffed a great deal for his flowery and extravagant style of expression, both written and oral. On one occasion it appears that the colonel of the regiment had appropriated the surgeon's tent for a mess-table without the usual formality of stating his intentions. Whereupon the surgeon sent a complaint to the officer in command. Among other things he said: "I have not so much as a fly to interpose between my head and the star-decked heavens above me." This unique document followed the regular routine and was duly turned to the unfortunate surgeon with the following endorsement: "Col. Brown will cause a fly to be interposed between the head of the complainant and the star-decked heavens above him as soon as possible."—Illustrated Sunday Magazine.

Changing a Business Emblem.
In a Brooklyn suburb a barber rented a shop that an undertaker had vacated. Among the belongings left behind by the proprietor of the mortuary business was a weather-beaten wooden representation of a monument, with base, pedestal, shaft and capstone of pine, which stood in front of his show window. The barber repainted the monument, lettered the base with his name and "funerary artist," painted sanitary red crosses on the faces of the pedestal, put spiral stripes of red and white around the shaft, and painted the cap pea green. Then he was ready for business.

"What is History."
What is history but the more or less superficial opinions of certain men with respect to the movement and course of events, some of which may be doubted or denied or disputed? There is a wide-spread opinion that history is something apart, something that gets itself done whether or no, and windy orators have been known to appeal to its judgment. But it will have to be written by men who have been trained to interpret it impartially.—Uncle Remus Magazine.

He Knew Father.
A Brooklyn teacher relates how he once endeavored to convey to a nine-year-old pupil some idea of beauty in the abstract and its effect upon the cultivated individual. "Now, William," said the teacher, "we will suppose that your mother should place a vase of beautiful flowers in the center of the dining table. What would your worthy father say as he sat down to eat?" "What are those weeds doing there?" said William, promptly.—Harper's.

She Knew the Formula.
A stranger approached a little girl who was somewhat accustomed to interviews with the usual question, "What's your name, little girl?" The little girl, without looking up from her sand-pile, replied: "My name is Edith, and I'm four. She's my little sister; her name's Mildred and she's two. I don't want to go with you and be your little girl, and I know you can't steal my little sister."—Harper's Bazar.

TO WEAR WHEN VISITING.

Effective Costume in the Latest Caprice of Fashion.

Face cloth in a pretty shade of fawn is employed for this dress. The skirt has a plain front breadth; the back and sides have an added piece at the foot, which is trimmed with embroidered galleon.

The blouse jacket is edged with galleon of a wider width, and is strapped with the cloth at each edge; the shoulders are cut with rounded space.

Lettes which fall over the puffed sleeves, blue crinoline hat, trimmed with rosettes of spotted tulle and two shaded ostrich feathers. Materials required: Seven yards 48 inches wide, five yards skirt lining, three yards silk for lining, house jacket, and galleon according to width.

FOR THE CHANGEABLE SILKS.

Make Good Foundation Covered with Shimmering Material.

Where to place the changeable silk looked like a problem, until it was discovered that it gave a beautiful effect as a foundation when covered with the shimmering white material. It has a beautifying effect with white which makes the outer garment richer in appearance. A good changeable silk which is splashed for foundation purposes is a mingled color of gray and pink. The gray must be almost white, which reflects a pinkish tone; steel blue and pink is pretty, while Copenhagen blue and silver is extremely handsome. Only very light tints should be worn with white, though ruby and plum is a lovely shade to wear under a black net dress. Cream and yellow is a rich color for the foundation to a white mouseline, and when the outer garment is light-colored, the openwork is picturesque in shadowing the uncertain yellow tinge beneath.

Muffs.
Mink muffs are fast and long and are formed by sewing the little bodies of the animals side by side. Sometimes a row of tails fringes the lower edge, others are decorated with heads on the front of the muff. The cheapest in mink will be about $40 and beautiful scarfs to match will cost about $15. Black lynx is a fur that wears well, but is not as generally becoming as the brown furs. Handsome muffs of this fur will bring $20 and a lovely shawl collar to match $25. Stocks in dyed squirrel, Japanese mink and Alaska sable are six dollars each. Persian lamb in the same style will cost $15.

Winter Colors.
All the new colors for winter have been extracted from flowers and fruits. Gowns are not made of yellow or purple, but of "blossom of apricots" or daffodil materials. Our blouses may be fashioned of the fine winged chiffon or lace wreathed with "pale of pansies" tulle. A toilet is arranged to represent autumn in shades of copper, flame and gold orange. A sunshade is a cloth of gold veiled in turquoise gauze, and a storm gown is in shades of gray chiffon.

Headgear.
Ostrich and egrettes are still the best tripping for fine hats. The flowers now used are either all silk or all velvet or combination of the two; but few linen flowers have been found on Sunday hats. The craze for purple shades, which started very early, has not held out, with the exception of certain shades used in trimming.

New Quilt for Baby.
Instead of knowing why your old worn-out quilt cut away the worst parts until you have a piece about a yard square, make a slip of some pretty colored silk, cut your piece of quilt into this and tie here and there with yarn. You will have a new quilt for baby at little cost.

BUSYBODIES V.S. TRUTH.

Here Are The Facts—Judge For Yourself.

Busybodies who see in success only falsity, who, without making an effort to inform themselves, blantly cry offense against honesty and truth—seem to forget that a slur against Dr. Pierce's well-known non-poisonous family remedy is a slur against the intelligence of thousands of clear-thinking American women who know they have been helped and cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is not a "patent medicine" in any sense; it is simply the favorite remedy which Dr. Pierce used in an extended practice for the treatment of the diseases peculiar to women.

Truth and Influence. A name for honesty and square dealing is better than great riches. Fraud is a bubble that soon bursts. Dr. R. V. Pierce has always been known to speak the truth—his famous medicines are founded on the rock of public approval and have thousands of truthful testimonials as to their ability to cure diseases for which they are recommended.

True Speaking. No man ever deceived a prospective customer through telling the truth. In the long run the truth prevails and he is therefore not afraid to make public his formula.

Valuable Trade Secrets. The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription are given to the public. He vindicates the excellence and harmless character of his "Prescription" by allowing all to know just what they are taking when they try this reliable tonic and nerve tonic for the diseases and illnesses peculiarly feminine. These ingredients are combined in just the right proportion to make an efficient remedy, without the use of a pad and they are as follows: Golden Seal root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root, Lady's Slipper root, with chemically pure glycerine of proper strength for extracting and preserving the active medicinal principles residing in the above native roots.

No Alcohol Used. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is necessary and advisable to use in the preparation of either his "Favorite Prescription" for weak women, or his "Golden Medical Discovery," a well-known alterative tonic, which is so largely used as a remedy for indigestion, torpid liver, bad blood and kindred ailments. Over forty years ago, he discovered that chemically pure glycerine is a far better solvent of most of the active principles residing in our native medicinal plants when used as a proper and sustained temperature than is alcohol; and, furthermore, he found that a glyceric extract was much better than an alcoholic one, and that the glycerine possessed nutritive and remedial value, being demulcent, nutritive and effective and ferment. ## REV. TROUTMAN SENDS BEST WISHES FOR PE-RU-NA

Rev. George A. E. Troutman, Mt.
Washington, Mo., writes,

"My Wife and I Are Strong Believers in Pe-ru-na."

Catarrah and La Grippe.
Rev. Geo. A. E. Troutman, Mt.
Washington, Mo., writes: "My wife and I are strong believers in Peruna."

I was cured of a bad case of catarrah when nothing else that I tried had any effect.
My wife was cured from a severe case of la grippe, and we feel that the least we can do is to gratefully acknowledge the merit of Peruna.

"My wife joins me in sending best wishes for your success."
Throat Trouble.
Rev. H. W. Tate, 929 Lincoln Avenue,
Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, Ohio, writes:
"For several years I have been troubled with a peculiar spasmodic affection of the throat. It would seize me suddenly and for a few minutes I would be unable to speak audibly, and my breath would be greatly interfered with. I would be obliged to gasp for breath.

"I finally concluded that it was some catarrhal affection which probably excited the spasm. It interfered with my vocation as a preacher, attacking me occasionally in the pulpit.

"I had heard so much about Peruna
as a catarrah remedy that I determined to try it. After taking two bottles, my trouble has disappeared. I feel sure that Peruna has greatly benefited me."
Rev. P. E. Swanstrom, Swedish
Baptist Pastor, Box 228, Grantsburg, Wis., writes that from the use of Peruna he is perfectly well, entirely cured of chronic diarrhea and catarrah.

Peruna in Tablet Form.

For two years Dr. Hartman and his assistants have incessantly labored to create Peruna in tablet form, and their strenuous labors have just been crowned with success. People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna Tablets, which represent the medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

H. C. Moore Buys Controll- ing Interest

H. C. Moore has bought the stock of W. D. Stowe in the Monarch Grain Co., established by Mr. Stowe two years ago on the belt line. As sociated with him are Dr. J. B.
Sackson and C. S. Jackson. The company handles hay and feed stuffs, doing both a wholesale and retail business. Mr. Stowe will remain in charge until Mr. Moore winds up his business as city tax collector, when he will assume the management of the business which will be greatly enlarged. Mr.
Stowe expects to move either to Texas or California.

AT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Young Italian Couple Were Wedded Monday.

Philip Bova, of Vincennes, Ind., and Miss Josephine Bova, of this city, were married Monday evening
at 6 o'clock at the Catholic church,
by Rev. Father Welch. The young couple left at 10 o'clock the same evening for Vincennes, Ind., their future home. The groom is a young Italian fruit dealer who came from the old country to this city in 1900
and afterwards went with his brother-in-law, Charlie Dattilo, to Vincennes. The bride, who is his cousin, made her home with Tony Dattilo in this city. They have many Hopkinsville friends, who will wish them happiness.

We are not yet ready for our formal opening, but will be more than pleased to show the public through at any time—never too late.

SOLD IN SON'S NAME.

Offense For Which Night Riders Whipped Pres Rogers.

The facts in regard to the sale of the tobacco crop of Presly B. Rogers outside of the association have become known. Rogers was a member of the association, but his son, Clarence Rogers, and a tenant on part of his farm were not members.
Young Rogers and the tenant sold their crop, estimated at 6,000 pounds, more or less, to a buyer in this city, whose established policy
was not to buy association tobacco,
except through the authorized officials. The price paid in this instance was $9.00 or $9.25 and when the tobacco was delivered the individual crop of the elder Rogers was sold under his son's contract. The buyer had no knowledge of what was done.
He received about 8,000 or 9,000 pounds and settled for all of it with the men who delivered it.

The transaction occurred several weeks ago. When the mob waited upon Rogers the night of Jan. 25, he was struck nine times with a buggy whip by one man and then another struck him several times. Mr. Rogers was in town yesterday.

$15,000,000 GIRL

Married a Man With an In- come of Only $60,000 a Year.

The "house" in New York in which Gladys Vanderbilt was married last Monday to a Hungarian Count has an iron fence around it fully ten feet high, and is said to be the finest private residences inside in the world.
The Count has an income of $60,000
a year and his bride inherited from him $15,000,000 to $15,000,000. Between the two they ought to be able to keep the wolf from the door.

Buried Tuesday.

The body of Stephen W. Henry, of Erlanger, Ky., arrived here Tuesday morning and was buried in the Henry lot in Riverside cemetery.
Mr. Henry was a brother of the late Winston Henry, of Caskey.

PLAIN CASE OF INCENDIARISM

J. Fay Brown's Grocery Burned By an Unknown Firebug.

NOTE SIGNED "N. R."

No Evidence that the Store Was Burned By a Body of Men.

The grocery store of J. F. Brown, on the Fairview pike, six miles east of town, was burned presumably by an incendiary, about midnight Monday night.

In his mail box he found a note signed "N. R.," telling him that unless he quit talking so much his dwelling would be burned, too.

The store was in flames when Mr.
Brown was aroused and he hastily dressed and fired his gun to attract assistance from his neighbors.
Some of them responded and aided
him in saving the dwelling house, which was for a while in danger, as it was near the store.

A stock of coal oil in the store added fury to the flames when the tank exploded.

Mr. Brown had received other threatening notes claiming to be from night riders. There is no evidence that a body of men was about the place and it is not known whether the store was burned by night riders or by some enemy who acted on his own responsibility.

The loss was about $700 on the building and $1,100 on the stock, the losses being partially insured.

GLADYS BUYS ACCOUNT.

Ceremony Performed in The Presence of About 350 Guests.

New York, Jan. 27.—The wedding
of Miss Gladys Moore Vanderbilt, daughter of Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, to Count Lazzio Szechenyi,
member of the Hungarian nobility, lieutenant of hussars and hereditary member of the Austro-Hungarian Parliament, took place at the Fifth-avenue home of the bride's mother soon after noon today. The ceremony was performed in the presence of about 350 guests in the salon on the Fifth-avenue side of the Vanderbilt residence. At one end of the long room an altar was placed under a bower of bending palm trees, the tops of which came together, forming an arch, under which the bridal party proceeded to the altar. About the trunks of the palms were twined
thousands of orchids.

Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, who was married to Count something or other, of Hungary, is worth $15,000,000 in her own name, but she contracted with Count Pibox to pay him as pin money the income from $1,000,000.

The Franklin county grand jury returned an indictment against the International Harvester company of Milwaukee, charging that the said company had combined with the McCormick, Champion, Deering and Osborne companies to regulate and control the prices on binders, mowers, reapers and other harvesting machinery. The fine for such offense under the Kentucky anti-trust statute is from one to five thousand dollars for each offense.

The Newman resolution to appoint a committee of three Senators and four Representatives to investigate the tobacco situation and appropriate $10,000 for expense money, was indefinitely postponed in the Senate Tuesday, after a spirited discussion, by a vote of 22 to 15. Senator Newman made a bitter attack on Gov. Willson, saying that lawlessness was increasing under his administration. Senator Rives was one of those who opposed the resolution, saying he could see no good that could result from the proposed investigation.

Investigations into the workings of the American Tobacco Company, in the attempt to prove it a monopoly in restraint of trade and to prevent it from doing an interstate business under the Sherman anti-trust law, was continued in the Federal court in Louisville Tuesday. The investigation is being made by the Department of Justice of the United States Government, and is being conducted by J. C. McReynolds, special attorney of the Attorney General of the United States. Attorney McReynolds began the taking of testimony in New York last summer, and he expects to get the case into court by April or May. Several witnesses were examined and the investigation will be resumed in Nashville to-day.

Mr. Latham's Loss.

The heaviest loser by the raid on Hopkinsville Dec. 7 was Mr. John C. Latham, of New York, who owned the Latham warehouse, the first building destroyed by the night riders. Mr. Latham's loss was probably $20,000 or $25,000, and the loss falls upon a man who has for thirty years been the greatest benefactor and philanthropist the people of Hopkinsville have had to call upon in their needs. No call upon him has ever passed unheeded. Twenty or more years ago when the first union turnpikes were built in the county, Mr. Latham invested $50,000 to build the turnpikes made free in 1901. The people of several sections of Christian county are now reaping the benefits of his liberality and progressive ideas in the development of his native county.

In 1886 it was his generosity that gathered together the bones of 101 Confederate soldiers who died in this city during the war and erected over their common grave a monument to their valor, at a cost of more than $20,000. In every railroad enterprise, every public-spirited movement, on every subscription to aid a public building, his name has always been on the list, usually at the head. When the city was in dire need of a first-class hotel, he came forward with a proposition to subscribe as much as the whole city would contribute, and the result was the elegant Hotel Latham, that cost more than $100,000. He gave largely to Baptist church of which his father was a member, and has always been a heavy contributor to the Episcopal church, the church of his mother.

There is scarcely a church in this city, white or colored, that he has not given to when called upon. His smaller benefactions have been almost countless. Hundreds of people of Hopkinsville have been made happy by his assistance in one way or another. Some years ago he constructed in Riverside cemetery a splendid mausoleum for the Latham family, which is one of the chief attractions of our beautiful city of the dead. Only last year on the old homestead, just across the street from where the raiders destroyed his property, he spent $10,000 in improving and adorning the house where his childhood was spent. That the wrath of the night riders should have fallen so heavily upon Mr. Latham, sick as he was a thousand miles away, in no way to blame for the tobacco troubles of Kentucky, is one of the keenest regrets of the people of Hopkinsville. It is said that Mr. Latham feels deeply the blow, and will not rebuild the warehouse destroyed.

USEFUL EVERY-DAY COAT.

Especially Adapted for Girl of from Fourteen to Sixteen Years.

This is a useful every-day coat, that can be worn over any dress; it is in very pale gray fine cloth, lined with silk; the fronts are strapped with cloth.

The collar and cuffs are faced with figured velvet and strapped at the edge. The coat may be worn open or closed.

The hat is of coarse pink straw,
 trimmed with a soft silk scarf.

Materials required: Two and one-half yards 46 inches wide, four yards
 silk lining and three-fourths yard velvet for facing.

SMART SUIT FOR WALKING.

Designed with Skirt and Coat and Silk Blouse.

Walking suits are charming and come in a number of smart guises.
 A French homespun is artistically designed with skirt and coat, and shown with a charming blouse of silk Toseco.
 The front of the skirt is made with a panel which extends in a loose fold around the bottom, and there is an extra trimming of flat bands of braid
 above the fold of homespun.

The coat is trimmed with panne velvet, which forms the revers, collars and cuffs. It fastens at the front with a vest of white leather of the softest, finest quality. There is a wide tuck on either side of the back and front, the tucks ending above the waist line in front under bands of the cloth, which are cut in one with the coat. The bands are ornamented with a row of velvet buttons. At the back of the skirt part of the coat is tucked from under the panel, while the shoulder extends over the upper part of the sleeve, the sleeve being attached to the armhole with a tuck. The buttons of the sleeves are finished with cuffs of velvet, as previously mentioned. The cuffs, in turn, are ornamented with velvet buttons and simulated button-holes.

Making Skirts.

The walking skirt of this date is a roomy one, though noticeably short,
 and many are made of heavy coating, unlined, and trimmed with bands of lighter material. The stitched hem is again in favor and the walking skirt
 will be seen with as many as 11
 stitched rows around the lower portion of the dress. One new model shows a shaped skirt with a seam down the center front, though not to the bottom of the skirt. This seam is slightly bowed and gives part of the features of a new Parisian skirt in draped effect, only the sides of the front panel are straight and not gathered. The skirts are wide and full,
 though close fitting over the hips.

New Guise of Scarf.

The much used scarf has taken on a new guise. This time it is of outlined chiffon taffeta gathered into a sort of draped hood at the back and caught together at the front. The fronts are finished with lace ends and an old-time ruching goes around all of the edges. These little mantles are made in black or in some quiet tone,
 such as shot or green or gray, and are worn with voile or marquisette
 gowns of the same color.

Fringe to be Fashionable.
 Fringe, which is to become very fashionable, will be adapted in every way, falling over the shoulder, over the hand-in fact in any effective
 "hole or corner" (if I may call it so) on the sleeve. There never was a time when the variety of styles was greater, or when each person could be more particularly suited.—The Designer.

The Separate White Skirt.

One of the most useful possessions
 for the girl with nothing a year is a white mohair skirt; but in choosing
 this it is essential to get a dead white,
 as cream color will destroy the beauty of the lingerie blouse with which it is to be worn.

The Square Jacket.

The square jacket and the pleated skirt are some heavy styles, plaids or plain browns or very dark blues,
 are much worn.

With them are seen skirt blouses
 and jackets that grow fuller and wider.

Local Leaflets

We will not have another Tabernacle entertainment until March 17.

Pneumonia is having quite a run in the city at this time, but there have been but few fatal cases.

Tomorrow will be the last day of the first month of the new year. From now on it will be known only as 1908—just like any other old year.

If you don't think Hopkinsville liquor men are doing a big business in Clarksville, just count the jugs that the express companies ship almost daily.

Several months since the postoffice department wrote here for information as to the price of an available lot for a public building—that's all, and the people don't seem to care if it is.

Wheat is reported to be looking finely, though there has been no snow to help it out this winter. It is also said that the rust and the fly may damage the crop considerably because of no snow.

More balloons were seen floating through the firmament Monday night. Some think it meant "business," while others say they were nothing more than movable stars, but very large ones.

The town clock got out of order Monday night and the light in the tower refused to shine. The clock was put in order Tuesday. This is the first time that anything of the sort has happened for some time.

St. Valentine's Day is coming on apace and merchants are beginning to display their stocks of comics and other goods for the day, but the postoffice clerks would prefer that St. Valentine's day should come no oftener than leap-year.

Yesterday [was "Carnation Day." The day was observed by admirers of the plate William McKinley wearing a carnation, which was the favorite flower of Mr. McKinley. The custom has been observed since January 29th, 1903, when the Carnation League of America was organized.

The ground-hog is beginning to wake up, the sparrows are making their nests, the buds on the trees had swollen considerably before the last cold snap, but you haven't seen the boys playing marbles yet, or spinning tops. So don't think for a moment that spring will come early this year.

The chances are that the present Kentucky Legislature will enact a law giving women the right to vote for school trustees—that is, if the Senatorial dead-lock does not prevent action on the bill. How many women are there in this county who would walk up to the polls and vote "like men" is an unanswerable question.

Never has the superiority of the concrete sidewalk over the ancient and effete brick concern been more thoroughly demonstrated than during the late freezes, thaws and showers. You see very little mud on the concrete walk, while the brick walks are covered with mud which has been accumulating for three or four months.

Won't somebody rent the lower floor of the incomplete Y. M. C. A. building, put down a floor and open up a business of some kind? It is on a good street and the rental would be a nice nucleus of a fund for completing the building some of these years. A chance for raising funds otherwise will not materialize very soon, it seems.

Farmers, it is said, want a change made in the game laws of Kentucky. They complain that the time for killing quail gives the town hunters all the advantage, as the farmers are too busy to go hunting during the open season, and the town fellows get all the birds. How about the large number of fellows in town who hunt at all and have no birds on their tables because they are not allowed to buy them and the hunter is not permitted to give them any birds?

STILL ANOTHER

Cold Wave Put in Its Appearance Here.

Much to the surprise of most people another cold wave struck this section Tuesday night about nine o'clock. The cold wave was preceded by high wind and the temperature continued to fall until nine o'clock Wednesday morning, the day being one of the coldest of the winter. A slight skim of ice was on small ponds but the sun shone bright during the entire day and hopes of an ice spell were dissipated by noon.

SEE "THE CLANSMAN."

Greatest Historical Dramas For Farewell Engagement.

If you are a lover of good plays, do not fail to see "The Clansman" on its return for a farewell engagement at the Vendome Theatre, Nashville, Tenn., Friday and Saturday, Feb. 7 and 8, and Saturday matinee. Of all the many offerings at this theatre, this is undoubtedly the greatest and grandest of the whole season. Gov. Robert B. Glenn, of North Carolina, advised every man and woman, especially those of the younger generation, to witness it, and hundreds of other leaders of Southern people and public opinion say the same. Crowded audiences and enormous enthusiasm mark the progress of "The Clansman" everywhere.

Until this play was written, many persons supposed that the South had no answer to make to the innumerable libels and calumnies heaped upon her by Northern writers. But "The Clansman" set in fierce white light the exact truth about the doings of the Ku Klux Klan and the Reconstruction struggle of forty years ago. It opened the eyes of both the South and the North. It showed that what the Southern people really did was to save white civilization from barbarism and anarchy; that the South would have been weltering in negro mongrelism but for the heroic work of the Ku Klux Klan. Aside from its political features "The Clansman" is a most beautiful and thrilling drama. The ladies enjoy it as much or even more than men, because of the engrossing love story. The hero of the play is a South Carolinian and a Ku Klux Klan leader. He falls in love with the pretty daughter of a Northern fanatic who has come South to organize the negroes against their white superiors. Ben Cameron courts the daughter and firmly opposes every move of the deluded and miserable father. In the end he wins the girl's hand and saves both from the clutches of the negro Lieutenant-Governor of the State. Under Ben's leadership Ku Klux drive the carpetbaggers and had negroes out of the State and restore the old regime.

Thrills, tears and laughter are wonderfully commingled in this play. The dramatic comedy is rich, and the loves of Uncle Hose and Aunt Eve and the thieving propensities and gullibility of Aleck, the negro High Sheriff of the county, convulses the audience.

A word should be said about the appearance of the Ku Klux in this play. Every detail is historically accurate. The ghostly costumes, weird ritual and white-robed steeds of the order are reproduced exactly as they were in the year 1867. The Ku Klux cavalry dash across the stage with startling realism. The High Court of the Klan sentence a self-confessed criminal to death.

Those who attend the play next week will see the original company of forty people direct from New York City, and a splendid new production with magnificent scenery, costumes and electrical effects. Patrons are advised to send in their orders for seats, accompanied by remittance, to Manager W. A. Sweetz, Vendome Theatre, Nashville, Tenn., and tickets of the kind desired will be promptly forwarded. The price of seats range from 50 cents to $1.50 at the evening performances, and 50, 75 and $1.00 at the matinee.

THIEF WAS COLD

And Stole Bed Clothing from Mrs. Gus Boales.

Mrs. Gus Boales, 123 East Sixteenth street, left one of the doors of her house open Tuesday night and a thief entered the room and stole a blanket and two or three quilts. After opening a trunk and scattering the contents over the floor the thief departed. Mrs. Boales is of the opinion that the thief took nothing but the articles mentioned.

AMUSEMENTS

Something of the character of the play, "A Messenger Boy," which is the bill at the opera house tonight, may be judged from the following letter of indorsement given to Manager Sweet by Rev. W. Parry-Thomson, Rector of Holy Trinity Church at Luverne, Minn.

"It was my good fortune to witness the excellent play you gave us, 'A Messenger Boy.' You and your supporters deserve all the hearty applause you received. The play is good, clean and moral, and deserves the support of the public."
